MISSIONARIES OF THE WEEK: Tom and Nancy Westpetal—Serving in Ukraine and Russia

The nation of Ukraine boasts a long history of involvement in the evangelization of Russia, especially Siberia and the Russian Far East. From the earliest of days of reform (perestroika) in the former Soviet Union the Ukrainian churches have wasted no time in sending missionaries throughout their less evangelized neighbor, Russia, and even today a large percentage of leaders in the Russian Pentecostal church are of Ukrainian or Belarusian origin.

2007 provided great opportunities of the Hope-In-Action evangelistic medical ministry. Working in conjunction with the Ukrainian branch of CBN, HIA conducted 21 outreaches in 11 Ukrainian states, utilizing over 20 medical and support personnel. Altogether 36,016 patients came through our registration line in 2007. Only 6% of the patients refused to take part in a spiritual discussion, and often this was simply due to time restraints. Additionally, 8100 (22%) WERE WILLING TO PRAY A PRAYER OF REPENTANCE AND FAITH! This is a great testimony to the openness still present in the former Soviet Union and to the power of the gospel.
